THE ABBOTT-BABCOCK GENEALOGICAL RECORD.

COMPILED BY WILLIAM PRATT ABBOTT.

The following pages comprise a list of the two hundred emigrant ancestors of William Pratt Abbott, which ancestors came to America between 1620 and 1653 and settled in the Colonies of Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island, together with a chart of his ancestors born in America. In all about four hundred persons.

William Pratt Abbott was born in Utica, Oneida Co., N. Y., and was the son of Henry Green Abbott, who was born in Lowville, Lewis Co., N. Y., July 29, 1818, and died in Utica, N. Y., January 17, 1896. His mother, Mary Curtis Babcock, was born in New Hartford, Oneida Co., N. Y., March 20, 1820, and died in Utica, N. Y., January 1, 1894. Their children were:

Charles Babcock Abbott, born and died in Syracuse, N. Y., 1845-1846.

Thomas Alden Abbott, born Syracuse, N. Y., June 16, 1847; died in St. Paul Minn., Aug. 13, 1922. He married Emma Van Nostrand, who is still living. They had one daughter, Mary Babcock Abbott, who is living in St. Paul, Minn.

Mary Ella Abbott, born Utica, N. Y., July 31, 1849. Still living, not married.

Jane Hurlbut Abbott, born Utica, N. Y., Nov. 27, 1852. Still living, not married.

William Pratt Abbott, born Utica, N. Y., May 24, 1856.

Henry James Abbott, born and died Utica, N. Y., 1858-1863.

William Pratt Abbott was educated in Utica, N. Y., and at Cornell University until 1877, when he engaged in manufacturing in Chicago, Illinois, under the firm name of Braun and Abbott.

In 1881 he removed to St. Paul, Minnesota, and became associated with his brother Thomas A. Abbott in the lumber business under the firm name of Abbott Brothers and the Abbott Manufacturing Company.

In 1903 he retired from the lumber business and until 1909 he continued a farm mortgage business in Minnesota, North Dakota and Louisiana, residing most of the time in Lake Charles, Louisiana.

In 1909 he retired from active business and has resided since that date in Ramapo Township, Rockland County, New York. P.O. address Suffern, N. Y.

In 1896 he married in St. Paul, Minnesota, Mary Eastman, daughter of Austin Vitruvius Eastman of St. Paul, Minn. She died in San Francisco, California in 1920, and he afterwards married Cornelia Comstock Lake of St. Paul, Minn.

Believing that all business men should have a hobby of some kind, aside from their business or profession, he has found much pleasure and recreation in the genealogical research relating to his ancestors and to their descendants, who came to America.

The first four of his ancestors to arrive came in the ship Mayflower in 1620. The second ship, Fortune, arrived in 1621 and brought two. In 1623 the third ship, Ann, arrived with Alice Southworth, who soon married Gov. William Bradford, the Governor of Massachusetts Bay Colony.

After 1623 the emigrant ships came in large numbers and from 1620 until 1653 about two hundred of his ancestors arrived in America.

The names of his emigrant ancestors will be found on the following two pages and a genealogical chart of his ancestors on the page following.

Mr. Abbott's two grandfathers served in the War of 1812 at Sackets Harbor, N. Y. ~~4~~ Three of his great-grandfathers and ~~one~~ great-great-grandfather served in the Revolution.
